

Hurrahing in Harvest

A celebration in words and music with a harvest supper

Devised and directed by
JAMES ROOSE-EVANS

Tuesday 12th October 2004
from 18.45 to 21.45
Temple Church, London, EC4
Temple, Blackfriars or Chancery Lane Tube

Hurrahing in Harvest Performances by James Roose-Evans Jane Lapotaire, William Gaunt and Catherine Ennis

Tickets £25 per head including Harvest Supper available from:

REEP Festival, No. 17 Allan House,
55 Saffron Hill, London EC1N 8QX
Cheques payable to REEP

Limited Tickets available on the door.

All Proceeds to REEP Garden Awards for Schools

For more information please visit:

www.reep.org enquiries@reep.org

REEP (The Religious Education and Environment Programme) provides unusual and thought-provoking resources for teachers and learners. It specialises in the fields of spirituality, the environment and religion and runs a Garden Awards Scheme for schools. REEP works with all faiths and is non-denominational.
Registered Charity no. 1000998